

Ethical Misconduct Policy

Complaints about ethical misconduct in the process of animal or human subject research:

- Requires complaint in sufficient detail as to allow for verification or refutation.
- Authors of the manuscript will be contacted with the exact details of the complaint and given an opportunity to respond and refute the complaint.
- At the discretion of Issues in Law and Medicine Editors, verification of ethical misconduct may result in withdrawal of the manuscript, or retraction of published papers.